Take it from Bart, 28. Whose wife suggested a hotel room romp in the middle of a shopping spree. Beds are a huge hindrance to good sex. And as a sexual venue, it has become too familiar.

Granted hopping into a hotel bedroom isn't quite Seville – but it definitely isn't the same old bedroom either. So when Bert's Wife Lisa said "Lets get a room after this", he was happily loss for words.

The sex was dazzling. Ditching the martial bed forces me to become creative again. We resurrected our forgotten sexual postures; he said "I also realized that my wife was capable of brash suggestions, casual sexuality and feminine confidence."

Since then, Bart boasts their carnal knowledge has reached new horizons. Literally, in the past several months, they have great sex in various hotel hot tubs, couches and even on top of the TV sets.

Move #2 - Play Games

Now men are just big boys, and also they love playing silly little games. 'Strip Poker' a game invented by cheekily little guys that nothing beats the fun out a women striping her bras and undies.

So it is no surprise that this simple yet 'risky' game is what Terry calls "the greatest idea May ever had!"

"May and I have been married for a few years and its only fair that our sex life has hit a plateau" says Terry, 33 "Well, one night during dinner, May had this mischievous grin and she thought of this cool game she wanted to play that night.

May proceed to state the rules and regulations. Each of them was to write down detailed instructions on slip of paper. They were to put the slips in a bowl and do whatever it said for 3 minutes.

It was absolutely devastating! Each and every slip of paper was like an X-rated fortune cookie! We both suggested the naughtiest idea that we could think of! And on top of that was the 3 minute time limit! It was long enough for her to grab the prize, and just short enough to keep me from going to sleep.

Finally we 'attacked' and 'savaged' each other like a couple of wild animals," Ultimately they didn't know what to name the game, so now they simply call it 'The Game'. A name that guarantees a mutual Pavlovian response."

Move #3 - Go On A Fetish Display

At this point you might be thinking: "Gosh, I will be too embarrassed to suggest something like that. My husband might think that I am a fxxxing pervert." But I have yet to meet any male who would think that it would be bad if his wife was, in fact an fxxxing pervert, if something gets you hot, it will definitely warm things up below our equator too.

Take Rebecca and Nick, they have been married for 10 years with two beautiful children; they openly admit that their sex life had been neglected, But thanks to a proposition by Rebecca. They now have a guaranteed fire starter.

"It all began on our honeymoon at a private ocean front resort in the Bahamas," says Nick. 36 "We noticed a woman sunbathing topless. My wife asks me if she could do that too. I told her that I have no problems with that.

The next morning she decided to go for it. “Nick enjoyed the attention his wife garnered from passerby. He also realized that having other people see her topless was a tremendous turn on for her too. “It made her feel sexy, wanted, and made the sex better too” he says”

Move #4 - Serve Yourself As Dessert Of The Day

Some says that the way to a man’s heart to through his stomach. Others say the path lies just slightly below his belt. Regardless of which happens to be, why not double your odds of a successful seduction by following the example of Roger and Cindy?

Cindy has always been considered conservative sexually. Says Roger “One night, I went to the fridge and thought. ‘Hmm ice cream... I took it back to the bedroom room and told her. Just lie down on your back and trust me, it will be real fun.” And let me tell you... It sure was!

Thus the recipe for Roger’s Sexual Sundae was born! We started with a clean towel underneath us for cleanliness. Then I tied Cindy to the bed with my old ties. I put a scoop of my favorite ice cream on her belly plus whipped cream on all the appropriate places, I added sprinkles and top them with a cherry, Then I munch away while she’s begs me to get the stuff off her...

Roger says Cindy practically begs for the Sexual Sundae on those nights she’s stressed from work. And Roger loves the recipe too! He gets to play with his food, tie up his wife, and have kinky sex with her!

Move #5 - Be Bad... Real Bad!

Remember that final scene in the movie Grease? The one at the Rydell High Graduation fair where Olivia Newton John transformed herself from prissy Sandra Dee into leather clad hussy in a push up bra?

Your husband does. This is basically his ultimate fantasy. It's the good girl turn bad. It's the horny librarian.

Or in the case of Devito, 31. The ultimate fantasy was his wife in a teddy and a pair of garters, toting a decidedly high voltage little friend. When Devito returned home from work one night, he was met at the door by someone who looks like his prim wife. "Zoey greeted me in this red nightie with a garter belt.

She poured me a shot of tequila stuck it in her cleavage and said: 'do a body shot.'

Well, that sure got my attention. I gulped down the tequila and she drags me by the tie into the bed room, unbutton my pants and jumped on me." He reveals. "Then she reached over the side of the bed and took out this vibrator! It was all really a pleasant surprise because she's not the type.

It really took me by a pleasant surprise and the feeling was like, getting back home and being jumped at by a super porn star." Needless to say the sex has never been hotter and Zoey feels much more confident about the agenda.

All of which goes to show that when you are looking to recharge your love life, you can never underestimate the power of taking control.
